The site was cherry picked to sit above the Wollondilly River bluff to capture the sunset river views as the water tumbles down the weir. Two large blocks were amalgamated to provide an elevated yet flat double block over 1600sqm. The home was purposefully inspired with art deco architectural influence, evident throughout by the high ceilings, detail finishes, burlled walnut joinery and chandelier lighting to all rooms. The home is a true sanctuary and has been designed to provide the pinnacle of residential luxury and amenity. It was built for relaxation
